About Mad Cat Constructions

Mad Cat Constructions (VIC) PTY LTD was incorporated in 2005. Mad Cat was established and is owned by Directors Trevor Reynolds and Jim Knight.

Both Trevor and Jim have many years of experience within the Civil Construction and Building Industry. Trevor & Jim both work actively within the business. Trevor generally manages all construction administration and planning and Jim manages the onsite daily operations of the business in a very hands on approach.

Trevor has many years experience as both an Operations Manager in civil construction and as a Registered Builder working in the building industry.

Jim has had many years experience in the civil industry operating a wide range of machinery and working on many civil projects both large and small

Trevor and Jim pride themselves in their ability to take on challenging projects that require many different skill sets to achieve the best result for the client.
